Behavioural Standards

As a member of Youth Brass 2000, high standards of behaviour & conduct are expected of you at all times. This Code of Conduct has been drawn up in order to protect the good name of Youth Brass 2000, & to ensure that all members of the band are kept safe. The leadership & committee reserve the right to either suspend transgressors from any event, or to leave the band. Instances of misconduct may be reported to parents / guardians of the band member(s) concerned.

Code of Conduct

- Instructions given by Youth Brass 2000 leadership must be followed without delay or argument.
- Youth Brass 2000 contains players of varying age groups. Different directives may be given according to age group – eg bedtimes when staying overnight – these directives must be adhered to without question.
- Different physical boundaries may be set at events depending upon age group. These must be adhered to without question.
- Alcohol – under-age drinking is not permitted. Alcohol is not allowed in bedrooms under any circumstances.
- Smoking – smoking is not permitted at any time at any band event.
- Drugs – No player may take, receive or possess any illegal substance. The band leadership must be advised of the use of prescribed drugs for medical purposes.
- Conduct (behaviour & language) – high standards are expected of you at all times. Youth Brass 2000 is a highly regarded band with an enviable reputation in the eyes of the public. Player(s) indulging in conduct which is likely to damage this reputation will be dealt with at the discretion of the band leadership.
- Punctuality – players must notify band leadership of their availability or changes to their availability (via Teamstuff, e-mail or phone call) in advance. Players must aim to ensure they are punctual for rehearsals and events.

I understand and agree to abide by the above Code of Conduct.
